

SOCIETY

SOOCIETY this week has been made up mainly of the last affairs of the younger set who have had their farewell fling and are now ready to settle down and enjoy Virgil and the intricacies of higher "math." for the remainder of the year. Those who have gone away to college and those who are leaving next week will find their glorious coat of tropical tan slowly evaporating on the mainland and with it all the supper-dances, surfing parties and tennis matches which persist at first in crawling over the pages of tris or physics or something else and blotting out all the neat little letters. However, just before they have really and truly forgotten about these good times through the more urgent interests of football, baseball and track, it will be summer again and time to return.

Our society matrons, however, have had a very busy week of it with little or no time for social functions. There is all the bustle and confusion of getting settled in town again after two or three months at the beach or in the mountains, and then there's the excitement of getting the children ready for school next week. Thus, my lady has had very few spare moments in which to play bridge or sip tea and as a result Dame Society has been decidedly "grumpy" all week. However, things will soon be running smoothly again, the social leaders will be planning original and wonderful entertainments and everyone will be learning the lulu-fu.

Mrs. Emmans' Garden Party.
Mrs. Floyd H. Emmans was hostess at a delightful garden party from three until six o'clock on Tuesday afternoon at her pretty Kaimuki home in celebration of her first wedding anniversary.

The charming garden was gaily decorated with flags and long strings of bright Japanese lanterns. On the tall pole fluttered the American and Canadian flags, the latter favoring Mrs. Emmans, who is of Canadian birth. Beneath a beautiful large wedding bell, cleverly fashioned of pink carnations and asparagus ferns, Mrs. Emmans welcomed her guests. During the hours of receiving, about eighty called and all afternoon the garden was a beautiful scene of lovely gowns and pleasing colors. A quintette of singing boys rendered the sweetest melodies, stopping only long enough that all might enjoy Mrs. Charles Spencer Crane's exquisite singing. During the afternoon she delighted her hearers with four songs, "I Love You Truly," "Still Unexpressed," "Just Awearyin' for You," and "In Dear Hawaii."

Under a great Japanese parasol in one corner of the garden, a little Japanese maid served punch, while in the dainty Japanese tea-house, Mrs. W. F. Gaynor, Mrs. A. F. Thayer and Miss Mabel Hall served delicious tea.

Mrs. Emmans was assisted in entertaining her guests by her mother, Mrs. Luella R. Emmans, and her grandmother, Mrs. M. E. Green. The affair was a great success and one of the most delightful events of the week.

Bauer's Concert.
It has at last been definitely decided that Honolulu is again to have the pleasure of hearing Harold Bauer play, and musical circles are eagerly anticipating the event. He will arrive here on the 11th of September on the Ventura coming from Australia where he has been touring, and will play in the Opera House on Monday evening, September 14. His concert is sure to be extremely successful for all those who heard him when he was here last and all those who missed him on that date are enthusiastically awaiting his return a week from Monday.

Company D Dance.
The big Company D dance to be held this evening in the National Guard armory promises to be a very delightful affair. Invitations to the dance have been received by the younger set of the local army and navy sets and by the prominent members of Honolulu's social circles, so there is sure to be a large attendance. The committee in charge, which consists of Marshall E. Henshaw, Frederick Wickham, David L. Mackaye, Walter V. Kolb, Charles M. Herbert and Gustave E. Schaefer have handled the affair in a very capable manner, thereby insuring its success.

Mrs. Clark's Dinner.
Mrs. Leslie C. Clark entertained in formally at dinner on Friday evening in honor of Miss Hastie and Miss Eva Hastie of Kauai. Covers were placed at the prettily decorated table for the Misses Hastie, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Girdler, Mr. Byron O. Clark, Mr. Bryan Girdler, Miss Dorothy Raab and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Clark.

Gen. and Mrs. Edwards' Dinner.
General and Mrs. Clarence R. Edwards entertained at a delightful dinner on Monday evening at their charming home in Manoa valley. The table was prettily decorated with flowers and ferns and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed. Covers were placed for Captain and Mrs. George H. Jamerson, Captain and Mrs. Thomas Captain Gilmore, Lieutenant and Mrs. Jerome G. Pillow, Judge and Mrs. A. A. Wilder, Mrs. Owen and General and Mrs. Edwards.

Miss Swanzy's House Party.
Miss Rosamund Swanzy was hostess at a very jolly house party this week at her summer home at Kureka. The party, which included, besides Miss Swanzy, Miss Ruth Soper, Mrs. Thelma Murray, Miss Pauline Schaefer and Miss Margaret Center, motored out to the country where they spent three delightful days, returning on Wednesday. It was one of those merry informal good times where one enjoys all sorts of healthy, outdoor pleasures and comes back to the city with the feeling that they have had "just a glorious time."

Miss Gilman's Tea.
Miss Carrie Gilman was hostess at a delightful tea on Tuesday of last week in honor of Miss Russell and Miss Fiah of Boston, who are guests in the city. The rooms were prettily decorated and a very enjoyable afternoon was spent sewing and chatting.

The Queen's Reception.
Her Majesty Queen Liliuokalani received on Wednesday morning between the hours of 10 and 12 in the drawing room of Washington Place in celebration of the 76th anniversary of her birth. The rooms were filled with great masses of the most beautiful flowers which had been sent her by her many friends and it was in a perfect garden of blooms that she welcomed her guests.

Although the reception was not on the elaborate scale of former years, all of her old friends, as well as a number of new ones, called upon her to deliver their congratulations and well wishes. Liliuokalani received them cordially with the gentle and gracious manner which rests so well on her. She is so slight and so sweet nowadays that she impresses one as being almost spiritual. During the many years of her life, she has endeared herself to her people and now she rests happy and content with the love of all.

Prof. Henri Berger and his band played a number of pleasing selections in the garden during the hours of the reception. Colonel Curtis F. Taylor and others assisted the queen in receiving her visitors.

Bride's Afternoon.
While it has been too warm for real parties this summer, there are many of ladies in town who enjoy a quiet game or two of cards with a few friends on one or more afternoons a week. It keeps one's interest up in cards, it takes one's mind off the heat and offers one an hour or two of excitement when the bidding is spirited as it usually is. Among the little groups meeting each week for a few rubbers is the one of which Mrs. J. S. Johnston, Mrs. Roe, Mrs. Sara Newcomb and Mrs. Benjamin H. Watkins are members.

Outrigger Party.
Mrs. L. B. Evans was hostess at a lovely summer party at the Outrigger club on Thursday evening when she entertained the guests of the Vida Villa at the beach. Covers were placed at the long tables for about 60 guests, all of whom enjoyed the many good things placed before them. Swimming was indulged in before supper and afterward, while those who preferred less strenuous recreation sat on the beach and enjoyed the perfect night.

Fort Shafter Hop.
The Fort Shafter hop which took place last evening was attended by a large number of people from town who motored out to enjoy the jolly dance. These hops have been popular right through the summer months and have a large number of devotees both at the post and in town.

Kaimuki Bridge Club.
Mrs. Ray B. Rietow entertained the Kaimuki Bridge Club at her lovely little home on Thursday afternoon. The rooms were most attractively decorated with hibiscus flowers in all the soft, pretty shades of pink. A large green jardiniere was filled with a great cluster of pale pink double blooms, another was filled with single ones, while other vases held their share of the beautiful flowers.

After a number of most exciting "rubbers," the first prize, which was a lovely hand-painted salad bowl, was awarded to Mrs. Ernst Giesecke. Mrs. A. F. Thayer captured the second which was a handsome crystal vase. Later delicious refreshments were served. For the first time in some months, every member of the club was present. They were: Mrs. Sam Peck, Mrs. Frank D. Applin, Mrs. L. E. Thayer, Mrs. Lewis Underwood, Mrs. A. F. Thayer, Miss Mabel Hall, Mrs. Gus Prescott, Mrs. Floyd H. Emmans, Mrs. Ernst Giesecke, Mrs. Charles S. Crane, and Mrs. Rietow.

Former Honolulu Girl Engaged.
The engagement is announced of Mr. Robert William Peters and Miss Mabel Mary Edwards, the latter formerly of Honolulu and well-known here. She has been living on the coast for some time. They are to be married in Los Angeles this month.

Miss Dredge Complimented.
Miss Ruth Anderson was hostess at a delightful luncheon on Thursday afternoon at the Rathskeller, complimentary to her cousin, Miss Beatrice Dredge. The table was prettily decorated with pale pink snapdragons, a large cluster of these flowers forming a very attractive centerpiece. At each place were lovely corsage bouquets of sweetpeas and violets, while attached to these were neat little gilt-edged place cards. Covers were placed for Miss Beatrice Dredge, Miss Grace Carter, Miss Lila McDonald, Miss May Biven, Miss Pauline Schaefer, Miss Helen Spaulding, Miss Margaret Center and Miss Anderson.

Miss Spaulding's Luncheon.
Miss Helen Spaulding was hostess at a charming little luncheon this afternoon at her home on Punahou street, in honor of Miss Beatrice Dredge, who is to depart for the Coast in the near future.

The table was beautifully decorated in pink in all the soft, rich shades, and at each place were Bulgarian corsage bouquets made up of hydrangeas and other flowers. The place cards were dainty little colonial figures done in colors, which blended softly with the table decorations.

Covers were placed for Miss Beatrice Dredge, Miss Ruth Anderson, Miss Lila McDonald, Miss Jessie Kennedy, Miss Margaret Center, Miss Ruth Soper, Miss Rose Herbert, Mrs. Norma Adams, Miss Pauline Schaefer and Miss Spaulding.

To Reside in Florida.
The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Arleigh will regret to learn from the following clipping that they have become so enthusiastic over Florida that they have decided to make their permanent home there.

nolulu, Hawaii, are spending the season at their Florida home, Parkleigh, between Spring Park and Spring Glen. Mr. Arleigh is president of the A. B. Arleigh & Co., of Honolulu. Parkleigh was formerly Mrs. Arleigh's winter home, but this is the first visit here since their marriage. Mr. Arleigh is enthusiastic over Florida as a summer resort and expects to make this their permanent home, as he has retired from active business. He leaves this week for a short trip to Honolulu—Florida Metropolis.

Dance at Schofield.
Lieutenant and Mrs. Rawson Warren entertained at a most enjoyable dance at Schofield Barracks on last Tuesday evening. It was quite a large and elaborate affair and the invitations included, besides a great many at the post, a number of Honolulu people who motored out to the affair. Miss Harriet Hatch and Mr. Frederick Wickham were among those who were around on the other side of the island and who motored over to Schofield for the dance.

SILK AND COTTON GOODS Expressing The Very Newest Ideas of Fashion

Revised patterns and new ones, conceptions of Fashion's cleverest artists have been brought together in this assortment of Dress Materials which we wish to bring to your notice.
